Miseducating Teachers about the Poor 2501 METHODS OF INVESTIGATION Teachers who had been through the Ruby Payne workshops at their schools, including two of the authors, confirmed that A Framework for Understanding Poverty provided the central content of the professional development program, so we determined that we would take that book as

Miseducating Teachers about the Poor: A Critical Analysis

The paranoiac-critical method is a surrealist technique developed by Salvador Dalí- in the early 1930s. He employed it in the production of paintings and other artworks, especially those that involved optical illusions and other multiple images. The technique consists of the artist invoking a paranoid state (fear that the self is being manipulated, targeted or controlled by others).

Critical discourse analysis (CDA) is an interdisciplinary approach to the study of discourse that views language as a form of social practice. Scholars working in the tradition of CDA generally argue that (non-linguistic) social practice and linguistic practice constitute one another and focus on investigating how societal power relations are established and reinforced through language use.
