A mnemonic (/ n     m   n   k /, the first "m" is silent) device, or memory device, is any learning technique that aids information retention or retrieval (remembering) in the human memory.Mnemonics make use of elaborative encoding, retrieval cues, and imagery as specific tools to encode any given information in a way that allows for efficient storage and retrieval.

Mnemonic - Wikipedia

A revolutionary book about mnemonic techniques, and their relation to the history of philosophy, science, and literature. The ancient Greeks, to whom a trained memory was of vital importance as it was to everyone before the invention of printing created an elaborate memory system, based on a technique of impressing "places" and "images" on the mind.
